CLERK: Mr. President, we have a request to adopt the E&R amendments to L.B. 201 which was replaced on select file today and to advance the bill, signed Senator Epke.

SPEAKER: Chair recognizes Senator Epke for his L.B. 201.

SENATOR EPKE: Mr. President and fellow Members, it seems we're doing a lot of talking on L.B. 201. This bill was amended more or less at the request of Senator Carpenter but after we amended the bill it was drawn to our attention by the Secretary of State that part of the wording we put into the amendment might be in conflict with the statute pertaining to the Brand Commission. So, what we're asking to do now is to strike part of the amendment to make it more or less fit with the, what the law pertains to in the Brand Commission. Now, can we do this right here or do we have to move it back?

SPEAKER: You have to adopt the E&R amendments, advance bill, then move to return it.

SENATOR EPKE: O.K. We'll adopt the E&R amendment and move to advance the bill.
